THE MI-CARENE BALL

will be observed here on the 24th and in New York there will be dances, &c., the night before. The only event of any importance for Mi-careme, however, is the leap year ball at Masonic Temple, of which Mrs. Morton, Lady Pauncefote, Mrs. Eugene Hale, Mrs. R. R. Hitt, Mrs. Nelson Brown, Mrs. J. Lee Carroll, Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Wallach are the patronesses and Miss Blaine, Miss Berry, Miss Rosalie Brown, Miss Carroll, Miss O'Donnell, Miss Edith Patten, Miss Pauncefote, Miss quick decisions and an ability to get one's friends together at twenty-four hourr' notice. The past week was not marked by as many formal dinners as are usual at this season. But some of them were memorable. In honor of his of them were memorable. In honor of his election to the presidency of the Metropolitan Club, seventy members sat down with Mr. John Davis at a complimentary banquet tendered him there on Thursday evening. President and Mrs. Harrison gave another large dinner last night to Senators and Representatives. Senator and Mrs. Kenna gave a handsome dinner on Thesday night for Secretary and Mrs. ner on Tuesday night for Secretary and Mrs. Elkins, and Justice and Mrs. Gray will give a dinner tonight.

Among the elegant luncheons given recently was that in honor of Mrs. Harrison by Mrs. John Hay, where Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Elkins, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Rusk, Mrs. J. W. Some of the dinners in prospective, for which the invitations are out, are Mrs. Mayo Hazeltine's on Monday night and Mrs. Elkins' on Tuesday night.

There are not as many clubs as existed last Lent, but they are plentiful enough and sufficiently varied as to aims and purposes to please all their members. The music clubs are numerous and useful. The Bowling Club presents, perhaps, the side of social activity the best. It meets Monday nights and after limbering up the muscles a repast, in which Welsh rarebit, beer and sandwiches form the leading deficacies, winds up the evening. Mrs. Robert Fitch Shepard received the guests at the meeting last Monday night.
